Organizational Changes Were Announced at The Hagerman Group

INDIANAPOLIS - Organizational changes were recently announced at The Hagerman Group, and its operational companies of Hagerman, Inc. and Hagerman Construction Corporation.

Bruce Molter, President of Hagerman, Inc., is now overseeing both the Fort Wayne and Fishers, IN offices, and is primarily operating from the Fishers location.

Nate Fink has been named President of Hagerman Construction Corporation, and will lead the Fort Wayne, IN office.

Jeff Hagerman remains the President of the parent company, The Hagerman Group, with Terry Greene and Jeff Schroeder serving in roles of Executive Vice President.

Stacy Neill has joined The Hagerman Group, based in Fishers, IN, as Marketing Director and Manager of The Hagerman Institute.

The Hagerman Group, a general contractor, construction manager, design-builder, and green builder, was founded in 1908 with three Indiana offices located in Fort Wayne, Fishers and Lafayette.
